EDITORIAL

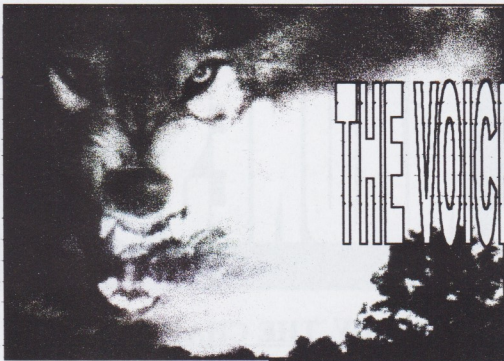

Regular readers of BROADSWORD will need little reminding that Britain faces many serious problems; multi-culturalism and mass immigration (both legal and illegal) which threatens the very identity of the British people. The insidious drip-feeding of Left-wing values into national life, often funded by local authority funds, in the form of 'political correctness', racial equality projects, support groups for every minority group but nothing for poor urban Whites. The remorseless rise in crime and drug abuse, the decline in moral standards, the pressure of debt and consumerism, the destruction of the countryside, the collapse of traditional industries and the increasing domination of Britain by European Union dictates from Brussels.

Now in the wake of September 11th 2001, the world is becoming more uncertain. As BROADSWORD goes to press the Middle East is becoming a cauldron which may boil over with serious consequences for the whole world. On top of which Prime Minister Tony Blair is hell bent on dragging the UK into a war with Iraq just to satisfy US foreign policy. Now is the time for radical National Socialists to make our voices heard. Now is the time to challenge the system.

THE VOICE OF NATIONAL SOCIALIST RESISTANCE

THE WE R W O L F C O L U M N

DON'T JUST READ ABOUT NATIONAL SOCIALISM—GET INVOLVED!

Become part of the BRITISH MOVEMENT Network - Become a BM activist, agitate, politicise your workplace, your college, your school, infiltrate a trade union, infiltrate the system, circulate BRITISH MOVEMENT propaganda, become part of the National Socialist counter-culture.

FIGHT FOR WHAT IS RIGHT!

AS A NATIONAL SOCIALIST ACTIVIST ALWAYS BE QUICK TO SCORE POINTS AGAINST THE SYSTEM. NEVER MISS AN OPPORTUNITY TO REMIND ORDINARY PEOPLE THAT:-

Britain now has a highly politicised police force, which has been forced to ignore street crime in the name of racial equality. Emasculated by the 'MacPherson Report' the police are branded "institutionally racist" and have been forced to prove otherwise by ignoring offences committed by ethnic minorities. The police are now run by politically appointed chiefs <just look at the Metropolitan Police>.

Hospitals, Water services, Transport—the railways, are all under funded and are being sold off at bottom dollar prices to rich capitalists, mostly foreign investors. These are the former nationalised industries and services that previous generations of British workers paid for in their blood, sweat, tears and taxes. The Trade Unions have betrayed the workers. The Unions are run by career Trade Unionists on top grade salaries who are partly responsible for keeping the fraudsters of New Labour in power. The Trade unions still subsidise the Labour Party and ordinary trade unionists pay their subscriptions which pays the safe-guarded salaries of union bosses who let the Labour Government sell out to the private sector and international companies.

Never fail to point out that the mainstream political parties have sold out the ordinary British people.

If you are a National Socialist activist become a one-man or one-woman propaganda machine. Always be on the attack, always have facts and figures to hand to support your point of view.

NEVER GIVE THE SYSTEM A MINUTES REST UNTIL NATIONAL SOCIALISM TRIUMPHS!

Britain is in rapid decline. Decades of subversion from the Left and stupidity or worse, from the 'Establishment' have devastated our country. Years of almost unopposed political correctness, multiculturalism, large-scale non-white immigration, rampant materialism, the Americanisation of popular entertainment and tolerance of anti-social subcultures and attitudes have caused severe damage to Britain's cultural and social cohesion, the British way of life and even the British landscape.

MULTI-RACIAL MADNESS

Force the races to mix, says CRE chief

Jackie Ashley
and Peter Hetherington

The northern towns and cities hit by last summer's racial disturbances should force white and ethnic communities to integrate to avoid further trouble, Gurbux Singh, the chairman of the commission for racial equality, says today.

He believes that white, black and Asian families should be obliged to live in the same areas even when they do not want to. In an interview with the Guardian that is bound to spark controversy, Mr Singh says he also wants an end to the practice of dumping black and Asian people in the worst housing.

After "a very depressing year" caused by the summer race riots and the backlash from September 11, Mr Singh says the only answer is to "bring communities together" by developing "public policies which actively encourage integration". That means, specifically, integration through housing and education. Racism is waning in white communities, he believes, while minority communities must

THIS IS HOW THE CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMISSION FOR RACIAL EQUALITY PROPOSES TO SOLVE BRITAIN'S RACIAL PROBLEMS....

Mr. Gurbux Singh has finally dropped the mask of liberal, democratic tolerance and has fallen back on the tried and tested Marxist/socialist method for getting a reluctant population to accept the Labour Government's plans for a multi-racial society—use force!

Wrapped up in typically New Labour phrases such as "encouraging integration", that the indigenous White British population must integrate with ethnic minorities by force if necessary. That Asian and Black families will be housed in solidly White working class areas, then local authorities can use existing powers to evict those 'racist' White households that object to their new neighbours, they in turn can be replaced by a new ethnic minority family as soon as they are moved out. The fear of eviction will be enough to silence resistance in many of the neighbourhoods that are being targeted for 'integration'.

The Evil Crimes of the 'Shadwell Massive'.

Another 'aspect' of a multi-cultural society we can do without.

February 2002—at the Central Criminal Courts at the Old Bailey, three members of the notorious street-gang, 'the Shadwell Massive' were convicted of manslaughter; Abdul Shohid, Mokul Hussain and Mohammed Islam had killed a foreign student, Vicente Delgado by kicking him into the path of a train on the tracks of the Docklands Light Railway at Shadwell station.

The three killers were part of a larger mob which had attacked Mr Delgado. Police had described the killers as "Pure evil". After the guilty verdicts were announced, the case was adjourned for pre-sentence reports. Bail was refused, wisely it seems, because when Mohammed Islam had confessed his part in the crime to his father, the family had tried to help Islam escape back to Bangladesh.

Last year five thugs from the Shadwell Massive were imprisoned after an attack on two students with machetes and baseball bats.

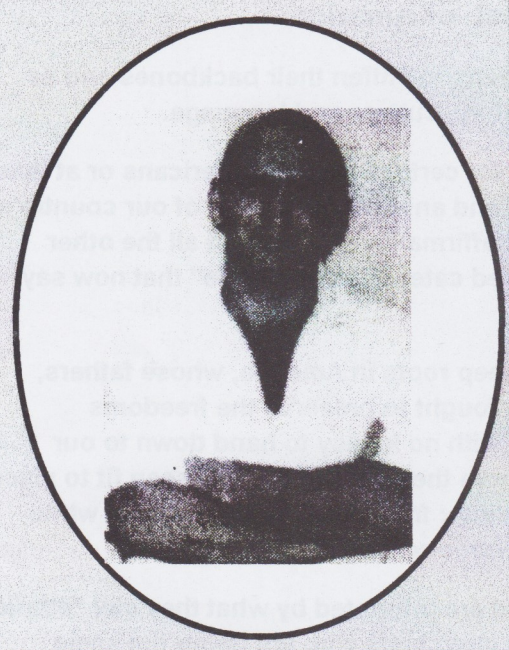

BRITAIN AWAKE—BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE!

According to newly released figures, within 5 to 10 years, Leicester will be the first British city to have an overall non-white majority population.

Within Leicester the White British will be the ethnic minority.

London On London

BROADSWORD'S 'COMMUNITY - CORRESPONDENT' ONCE AGAIN REPORTS ON LIFE ON THE STREETS OF BRITAIN'S CAPITAL.

LONDON :- STREET—CRIME.

Life just gets worse on the streets of London, as the city gets more and more multi-racial, old values and moral standards decline and the imported ethics and lifestyles of the 'Third World' take over.

According to a report in the "Evening Standard" on Feb. 20th 2002, street crime in London has increased by 49% since January 2001. There were 6,754 street robberies in January 2002, that's more than 220 muggings per day! On top of that, the murder rate is climbing, especially the number of 'black-on-black' gangland killings, usually over drugs and 'Yardie hits' over territory or 'respect'.

In the first seven weeks of 2002 there have been six black-gangland murders; five were shootings, in the sixth the victim was beaten to death then set on fire.

Add to that the violence of Asian street gangs like the "Shadwell Massive" and the picture gets bleaker and bleaker.

Who Says That Immigrants are Lazy Scroungers? These People Work Bloody Hard to Build up Their Businesses Here..

This is a classic story of how two Nigerian immigrants to London worked every hour God sent to build up a little family business; Bais Sulaiman and his wife Wurola managed to start up from nothing and quickly built a little printing business down in Thamesmead which made over £400,000 since 1998. Enough money in fact to maintain their business here in Britain and buy an eight-bedroom mansion back in Nigeria.

March 2002—Southwark Crown Court heard how a four month investigation led to a Fraud Squad raid on the Sulaiman home back in September 2001. It seems that the enterprising Mr. and Mrs. Sulaiman had cornered the market in providing complete identity packages for newly arrived illegal immigrants. For just £4,000 a time, an illegal immigrant could buy a set of 'brand new' documents which included; a forged driving licence, National Insurance card, fake immigration papers, banking documents, medical records and education certificates. Fraud Squad officers were able to prove that these document sets had allowed illegal immigrants to settle in Britain indefinitely, obtain credit cards, bank loans and mortgages.

This was a cottage industry, concealed in an Islamic 'Prayer room' at their three bedroom house in Binsey Walk. The room was packed with hi-tech printing and laminating equipment including a £4,000 colour printer which was as good as the one used by Fraud Squad forensic labs. Mr. Sulaiman had produced over 1,000 National Insurance cards which he sold at £150 each. Fraud Squad officers searching garages rented by the Sulaimans found sacks containing over 13,000 forged documents including birth certificates, driving licences, marriage certificates and NHS registration cards. Bais Sulaiman pleaded guilty to 32 charges of forgery and asked for another 2,603 offences to be taken into consideration. His wife admitted 3 charges of forgery, obtaining £5,700 housing benefit by deception, and facilitating the illegal entry into Britain of her twin sisters. In a heart-warming gesture of British justice, Judge Paul Dodgson, took into account that Mrs. Sulaiman had spent 6 months in prison on remand and so freed her immediately to look after her six children while her husband was jailed for four and a half years.

Sadly the Fraud Squad closed down the family printing business the enterprising immigrant family had worked so hard to build.

PASSING OF AN AMERICAN PATRIOT

Broadsword was saddened to hear of the death of Ruth Coffey, the driving force behind the "Stop Immigration Now" campaign in the USA. Reproduced below is an article by Ruth Coffey which originally appeared in The Populist Observer in December 1993. Although this article was aimed at an American readership, its message is easily transferred to the situation in Britain or in Western Europe.

The 'Peaceful Conquest' of America.

Maybe its already too late for white American citizens to stiffen their backbones and assert pride in their own country, race, heritage, history, culture and language.

Maybe they feel it is futile to fight a losing cause, for certainly, white Americans or at least most of them, have already lost their self-respect and any other segment of our country's population who cracks the whip of "civil rights", "affirmative action" and all the other "rights" mandated by our government to "protected categories of people" that now say "kneel to your new masters!"

It's sickening to watch by those of us who have deep roots in America, whose fathers, brothers, grandfathers, sons and daughters have fought to preserve the freedoms granted to us in our Constitution but are now left with no legacy to hand down to our progeny but fear. Yes, fear, of offending those whom the government has seen fit to place in those "protected categories" (which translates into: free to usurp the rights of white Americans in every area of our society from the schoolroom to the workplace!)

While people in civilized nations all over the world are infuriated by what they call "ethnic cleansing" in Bosnia, Americans are cheering on anarchists who are doing the same thing in our own country under the guise of "multiculturalism"...Not with bullets but with ballots that place traitors in office....Not with tanks but with word processors used by traitorous members of the media to champion the rights of America's conquerors...Not with nuclear bombs but because of apathy on the part of the conquered citizens.

Amazingly, there are still millions of American citizens who suffer from the "Ostrich Syndrome" and refuse to believe that America has been targeted for conquest, through mass immigration, by Latin American and Asian countries.

Perhaps the following quote from Father Florencio Rigoni's speech to the Mexican Bishops' Council in 1986 will persuade those Americans to have second thoughts. According to Rigoni, the march of Latin Americans to the United States shouldn't be understood as a wave of anger or revolutionary passion but more as a "peaceful conquest".

In other words, if Americans won't fight ethnic cultural rape, just lay back and enjoy it!

I can't speak for the rest of my fellow Americans but I have no intention of being the object of "conquest", peaceful or otherwise, by Latinos, Asians, blacks, Arabs, or any other group or individuals who have claimed my country as the result of "peaceful conquest" and are intent on transforming it into a replica of their own Third World cultures.

In closing, I'd like to paraphrase Everett Hale's famous work, "The Man Without a Country" and ask: Breathe there a man with soul so dead that never to himself has said, "This was, my own native-land"?

OVERSEAS NEWS & VIEWS

BROADSWORD LOOKS AT NEWS, VIEWS AND EVENTS ACROSS THE WORLD FROM A NATIONAL SOCIALIST PERSPECTIVE.

Reporting on a particular organisation or publication by Broadsword does not indicate support for, or imply approval by BRITISH MOVEMENT for those organisations or their publications.

ITALY FACES THE "CAMP OF THE SAINTS" INVASION.

In issue No. 20 of Broadsword, one of our articles drew attention to the situation in southern France where the grounding of a ship full of illegal immigrants had direct parallels with the fictional alien invasion recounted in Raspail's book "The Camp of the Saints".

Now it seems that Italy is facing an identical situation. In early March 2002, Italian coastguard vessels intercepted a cargo ship carrying over 1,000 Kurdish immigrants trying to land illegally on the Sicilian coast. There were also intelligence reports that between 10 and 15 more assorted ship loads of illegal immigrants were heading for Italian coastal waters. It appears that Italy has become the destination of choice for illegal economic migrants from Asia and the Far East to gain entry into Europe. Once landed in Italy, these illegal entrants quickly spread across western Europe and disappear into existing immigrant communities, Italy is seen as a 'soft option' for gaining illegal access to Europe.

The threat of repeated invasion by these ships has prompted Italian Prime Minister Silvio Berlusconi to speak out in graphic terms of his fears for the future of Italy. Mr Berlusconi spoke with an honesty rarely found in modern European politicians, "Italy can't accept entire masses of immigrants, thousands at a time. It is not in a position to receive them."

Calling on the Italian parliament to pass anti-immigration legislation, he spelled out his fears, "In no time we'll be thrown out of our own country by masses of immigrants. It will be a dramatic situation, with a pressure that will lead to war and September 11th type situations with the re-emergence of terrorism."

IT'S THAT BOOK AGAIN!

An Arabic translation of Mein Kampf has become a bestseller in the besieged Palestinian territories. Arabic copies of Mein Kampf are currently being printed and distributed by a Lebanese publisher and is listed as the sixth best selling book in the Palestinian Authority territories. The translator, Luis al-Haj, has prefaced the Arabic edition of the book with these thoughts;

"National Socialism did not die with the death of its herald.
Rather, its seeds multiplied under each star."

Not only that, but much to the horror of the Zionists, this popular reading material is now on sale amongst immigrant Arabic speaking communities in Europe, including here in Britain. According to a 'shock/horror' report in the 'Daily Telegraph', Arabic copies of Mein Kampf have been on sale in at least three newsagents shops on the Edgware Road in central London, as well as elsewhere in London and other major cities. Apparently the Arabic edition of Mein Kampf has proved to be a popular seller with Arab customers in the UK. Predictably this literary popularity has not gone down well with the Zionists in the UK, especially those in the vicinity of the Edgware Road.

The 'Daily Telegraph' reported that Andrew Dismore, the Labour MP for Hendon would be tabling questions to the Home Secretary about this and regarded the distribution of an Arabic Mein Kampf in Britain as "a very worrying trend".

Sunday Bloody Sunday!

How the British Film Industry has tried to re-write the conflict in Ulster. "Bloody Sunday—The Movie" has broken new ground in the Left-Wing takeover of the British entertainment media as an instrument of re-education, indoctrination, and the discrediting of British military involvement in Northern Ireland.

'Bloody Sunday' is a clear expression of pro-Irish Republican sympathy at work in the world of TV entertainment. In classic Marxist style, posing as a 'docu-drama', history is re-written and revised according to a Left-wing agenda.

There is no balance here, Republican propaganda is portrayed as truth and another session of character assassination against the British Army is broadcast to a national audience.

The true story of what really happened on 'Bloody Sunday' will probably never be told, there are too many conflicting interests; the Irish Republican version has to portray the British Army as evil murderers and the Civil Rights marchers as innocent victims, the mythology of Provisional Sinn Fein demands it. The British Government, in particular the unelected and faceless mandarins at the Ministry of Defence cannot be seen to be in the wrong, and will never admit liability. So the Army has to carry the blame for all the actions of all sides. The poor bloody 'squaddies' are left to answer for everyone else and take the abuse for the guilty men on both sides. If the truth ever does show its face, then the likelihood is that shots were fired by individual Irish Republican gunmen, just as a nail bomb or two were probably thrown. There were probably shots fired into the crowd by young soldiers under pressure and under attack, uncertain as to where to direct their retaliation.

None of this excuses the propaganda exercise launched under the guise of entertainment. Even worse that National Lottery funding has been behind the production of this anti-British agitprop. It is a standard tactic of the Marxist Left to get the political establishment to pay for an attack on itself.

This film is also a practical demonstration as to how the political 'Left' have taken over the British media at all levels. Those Left-wing political thinkers and activists who were student radicals in the 1960's and 1970's are now well entrenched in TV, radio and the newspapers. These people are now in powerful positions as opinion shapers and controllers of news and entertainment. The constant outpouring of Left-wing and liberal ideology wrapped in the glossy packaging of TV and film is a national scandal, but also a symptom of how far the Socialist Left have infiltrated the national media in Britain.

The screening of Bloody Sunday—The Movie, together with the Labour Government's craven behaviour towards Provisional Sinn Fein, including the expensive new office refurbishments for Sinn Fein MP's at Westminster has provoked a burst of outrage from British Movement supporters who are, or have been serving soldiers in the British Army, with tours of duty in Ulster behind them. Here are some of their angry words:

....To see Gerry Adams and Co. in Parliament, it reminds me of my friend Gunner Taylor's legs flying past me in South Armagh. I feel it wasted six years of my life. Will Blair send his son Euan or his other scabs to Northern Ireland? Blair is a traitor.

'Ex- British Army'

....That 'Bloody Sunday' programme on TV is really getting to me ! It's mostly bare-faced lies, and all one-sided.

In 1971 to 1973, I was a Gunner with 39 Regt. Light Air Defence, Royal Artillery. Primarily we were put in there to protect the Catholics, this is the irony of it. It seems incredible that after 30 odd years, the whole thing is being dug up again.

Will there be any boycotts or demonstrations against this film?

....I only did one tour of duty in Northern Ireland, but I can tell you this, that TV programme about "Bloody Sunday", there is nothing about 'nail bombs' and fiendish devices.....like some ar*le with what appears to be an innocent bicycle-pump, comes strolling by you, pretending to be fiddling with it. The next thing you know is that you are blasted with a shotgun cartridge at close range!

<The pump being the old metal tube type had been modified to take a shotgun cartridge and the handle modified to fire it.> There were all sorts of crude devices like this, that is until the Americans started to pump money into the IRA

MAYHEM IN THE MIDDLE EAST

As Broadword goes to press, there is mayhem in the Middle East, for the last two weeks the inappropriately named 'Israeli Defence forces' have been ruthlessly rampaging across the Palestinian Territories in an act of outright war.

In the wake of the events of September 11th 2001, US President George W. Bush declared "war on global terrorism" (whatever that might mean) - this gave a green light to the Zionist State of Israel to carry out whatever military action it chose against the Palestinian Territories.

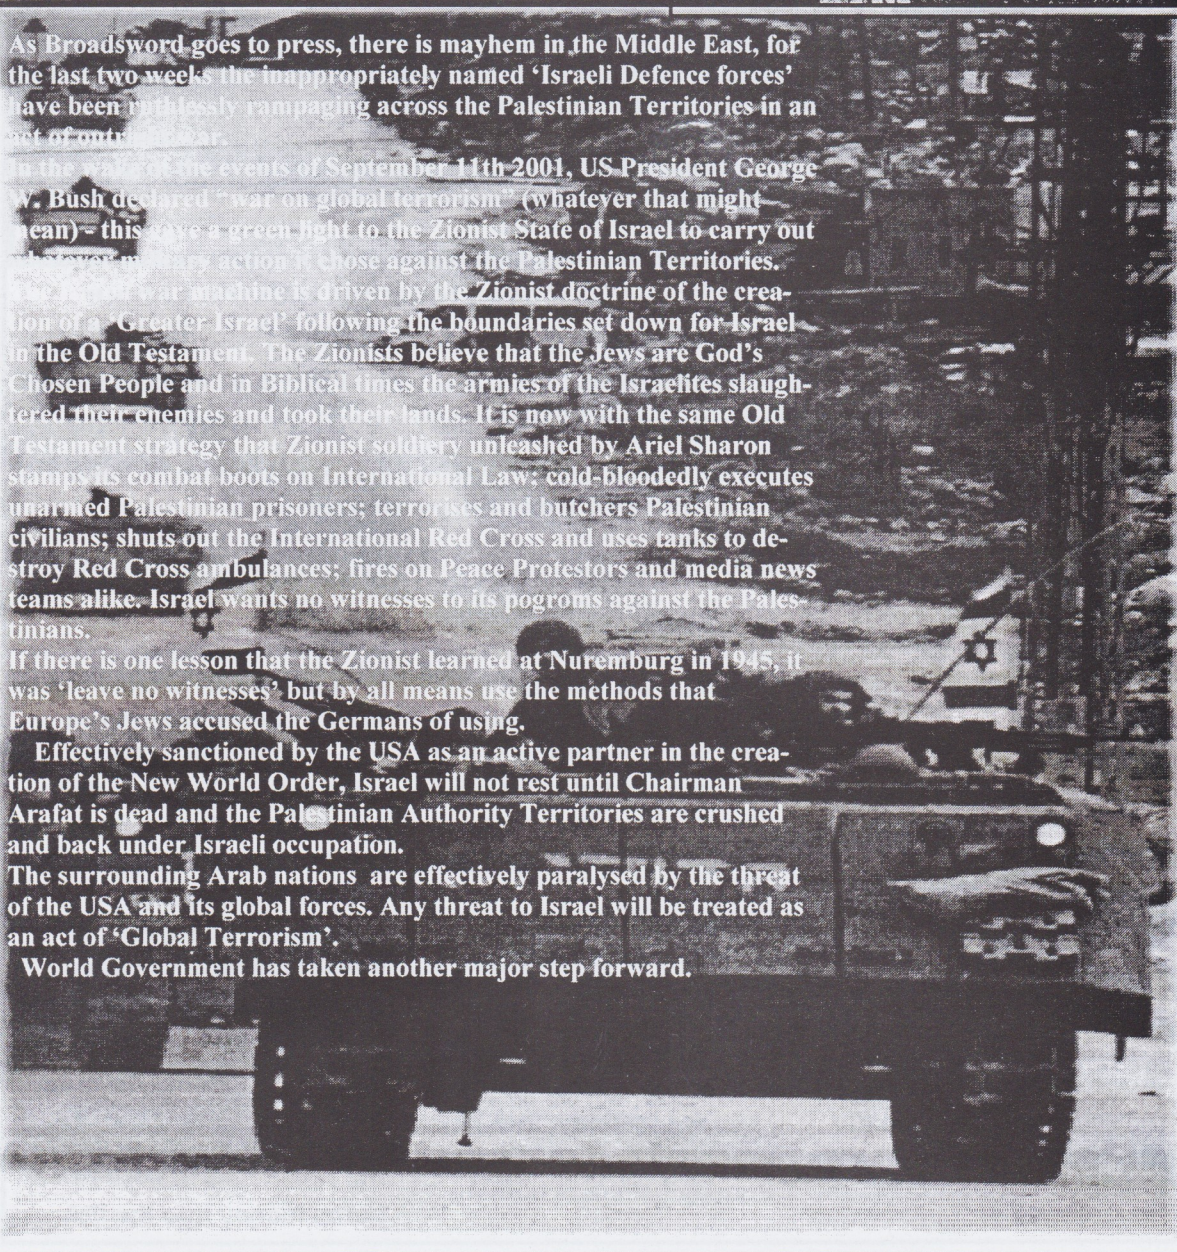

The Jewish war machine is driven by the Zionist doctrine of the creation of a 'Greater Israel' following the boundaries set down for Israel in the Old Testament. The Zionists believe that the Jews are God's Chosen People and in Biblical times the armies of the Israelites slaughtered their enemies and took their lands. It is now with the same Old Testament strategy that Zionist soldiery unleashed by Ariel Sharon stamps its combat boots on International Law; cold-bloodedly executes unarmed Palestinian prisoners; terrorises and butchers Palestinian civilians; shuts out the International Red Cross and uses tanks to destroy Red Cross ambulances; fires on Peace Protestors and media news teams alike. Israel wants no witnesses to its pogroms against the Palestinians.

If there is one lesson that the Zionist learned at Nuremburg in 1945, it was 'leave no witnesses' but by all means use the methods that Europe's Jews accused the Germans of using.

Effectively sanctioned by the USA as an active partner in the creation of the New World Order, Israel will not rest until Chairman Arafat is dead and the Palestinian Authority Territories are crushed and back under Israeli occupation.

The surrounding Arab nations are effectively paralysed by the threat of the USA and its global forces. Any threat to Israel will be treated as an act of 'Global Terrorism'.

World Government has taken another major step forward.

NOW THAT FOOT AND MOUTH IS OVER:-

So You Think It Was Just An Agricultural Epidemic?

Very conveniently the Foot & Mouth epidemic in Britain in 2001 allowed the British Government to meet one of its most pressing policy adjustments to European Union agricultural planning.

Britain's role in the Europe wide consolidation and streamlining of agricultural production demanded that certain anomalies be removed and correct. The sheep farming on Britain's uplands did not fit into the greater European plan, but how could this be carried out without major unrest in the rural communities?

The arrival of Foot and Mouth disease provided a ready solution, government sponsored veterinary teams, backed by government sponsored testing centres, government sponsored slaughter teams and all overseen by the Ministry of Agriculture (MAFF).

A compliant news media played the government game and whipped up an atmosphere of hysteria, which demanded 'tough action now'. In typical New Labour style, the Minister responsible for overseeing rural affairs had no first hand knowledge of farming, agriculture or rural industries like tourism and country sporting pursuits. The situation blundered along, blindly following the government policy line; slaughter and burn, no vaccination campaign, if in doubt—wipe it out!

Very conveniently the Labour Government rushed through emergency regulations, which forced the farmers and stockbreeders to follow government policy 'or else'. Those farmers who tried to resist enforced slaughter of their stock were bullied into submission by arrogant MAFF bureaucrats and apparatchiks, backed up by the police, who forced entry onto private land and in some cases into private homes. Commonsense was thrown out of the window and any defiant country folk faced prosecution for daring to challenge government policy. In a number of instances the urgency to fulfil the New Labour grand plan was such that slaughter teams went to the wrong farms and annihilated healthy herds and flocks with little regard for the distress caused and injustice of their actions.

SO YOU THINK IT WAS JUST AN AGRICULTURAL EPIDEMIC?

In a typical stroke of New Labour manipulation, as soon as the bulk of the slaughter was over and anger in the countryside was running at maximum heat, the government renamed the highly unpopular ministry from MAFF to DEFRA, breaking the focus of anger by a sleight of hand trick, which should fool no one (we hope). The policy makers in Tony Blair's office hope that by a simple name change to the agency any lingering hatred or blame aimed at MAFF will die out with the old name.

The big bonus for the Labour Government of course is that it brought the European policy plan into effect in record time, gaining big plusses for the bureaucrats at Whitehall with the mandarins in Brussels. The policy makers and movers and shakers in New Labour's think-tank are all urban based intellectuals, with no knowledge of, or affinity with the British countryside. The fate of Britain's rural population was of little concern to a city dwelling elite who owed nothing to the farmers, stock-breeders and village communities. New Labour's voting strength is in the cities and metropolitan conurbations, the multi-cultural sink estates and commuter belts. New Labour has always rejected traditional British pastimes, culture and heritage in favour of a modernised, one-style-fits-all version of Britain and its population.

The British Government really has tried hard to bring British food production into the European Union 'Grand Plan'; the British fishing fleets have been swept away to accommodate the specialist Northern waters fleets from Scandinavia and the factory fishing fleets from Spain and the Baltic. Now the inconvenient and obstructive British sheep and cattle farmers have been neutralised, the British pig breeders are in retreat and a few more years will see that untidy arrangement sorted out to suit Brussels.

How neatly it all fits together, now the European Union plan can be made concrete; the Netherlands will be the dairy producers for the whole EU; Germany and Denmark will produce pigs and beef; northern France and southern Europe will produce sheep; Britain will produce grain and root crops, turnips, carrots and potatoes.

The EU farming policy is just part of the grand plan to fall in with the New World Order and its global re-organisation, the New Labour Government of Tony Blair and his acolytes are just fulfilling their roles in this sordid destruction of national economies and industries.

.....MORE MESSAGES TO BROADSWORD.....

Broadsword receives many letters and e-mails on a wide range of subjects, too many in fact for inclusion on our letters page and 'Our readers Say' page. So in this issue of Broadsword we have added an extra page for NS comment.

Dear Broadsword,
Just seen your web site and was gratified to read your stance on the British Farmers and the utterly devastating crime perpetrated by the powers that be to destroy British livestock and associated genetic pools. I have heard that the plan is to wipe out the British farming industry altogether and replace it with a European Union special farming areas programme including countries with "much ideal flat farming land such as France and Poland". The reason given was that "Britain does not need to produce food, Britain can import it". I live in South Africa at present but am descended from a long line of Norfolk farmers on one side and Icelandic and Norwegian farmers on the other and am horrified at what is going on in the country of my forefathers (to which I am hoping to return in the very near future, but being second generation I must do so by stealth on an ancestry visa).

The countryside issue is one that many people in Britain tend to ignore. Unlike South Africa, where the white community are closely tied both politically and spiritually to the land and to those who work the land. (We are anticipating a land grab similar to the one in Zimbabwe and hold out little hope that farmers will be able to stave off the marauding hordes when they finally decide to make their move.) If only the British people could manage to bridge the seemingly eternal gap between working class and middle class and come together in a spirit of brotherhood. The class war will be the end of us as a race if we are not very careful. It is what caused our forefathers to leave Britain in the first place and come to the colonies. They lacked any hope of advancement at home because they were classed as mere "labourers". A shame and a disgrace that needs putting right quickly.

May your movement continue to grow, may you be able to reach the youth before they are destroyed and may Britannia wake up soon to the ghastly fate being planned for her people in Whitehall. If Britain goes, the world will lose something rare and the trouble about crying over spilled milk is that it doesn't get the stuff back into the bottle, or into the cow.

In the meantime, I do what I can.

Silver Falcon.

Dear BM,

I would just like to say how much I agree with your beliefs. I am a teacher so it is difficult for me to express my views at work but I see more and more violent behaviour coming from certain sections of 'our community'.

Firstly, let me say that I do not judge people due to their race or religion. I respect each individual and merit them on their worth to society as a whole. My only concern is that people who are not of my race and nation are being allowed to run my country and say what I can and can not do! Money is being ploughed into third world countries that have nothing to do with us and yet our children usually don't have anything to do at night except kick a football and even turn to crime. I don't think that children are intrinsically wicked, I would not have been a teacher if I felt that! I just feel that something should be provided for our kids to stop them being bored and to give them a sense of pride in themselves as low esteem is often linked to crime and drugs. The money we save on not propping up decadent foreign states should be spent on OUR CHILDRENS' WELFARE! If we have any money left after it's been spent on Britain then we invest it in post Communist countries who are struggling to achieve true democracy. The so-called asylum seekers who come in now are not true Slavs but are mongrel bastards descended from the Turks who invaded southern Europe and stayed during the Ottoman Empire.

Anyway, keep up the good work, I'll certainly put your site on one of my favourite's list.

OBITUARY BOB JOYCE—USA.

Robert Paul Joyce was born on December 4th 1939 in Chicago, the youngest of three children. Age 14 he left school to train as an apprentice mechanic. Later in life he moved to Los Angeles where he became involved in NS politics; from 1969 to 1972 he was a 'stormtrooper' in the legendary Joe Tomassi's National Socialist White Peoples Party. He then returned to Chicago where he purchased and ran a 'White power' van carrying 12 'stormtroopers' for the Cicero, Midwest unit of NSWPP serving as second in command to Cedric Syrdahl.

Bob Joyce was a big, rough bull of a man at 6ft. -1 ins. and 250 lbs who had a big heart of gold for White working-class kinfolk. He established a tree-cutting and landscape business which hired many racial comrades over the years, despite constant harassment from the FBI and similar.

Bob respected all activists but had contempt for the reactionary parasites, beggars and paper shuffling bureaucrats.

In the last 10 years, Bob retired to Couderay in north-western Wisconsin, where he lived on 5 acres with his six loyal German Shepherd dogs.

His last public activity was August 25th 2001 when he was one of 47 Aryans demonstrating on Minneapolis state capitol confronting 2 to 3,000 'wiggers' and 'mud-people'. At the time of his death on October 16th 2001, he had just completed erecting a large storage shed on his property. Surviving him are a son, daughter and 2 grandchildren. He enjoyed fishing and was dedicated to the cause of the "Fourteen Words".

May Comrade Bob Joyce rest in peace till Ragnarok!

Blair's Asian Backers & Bankers

SO WHO WRITES THE CHEQUES FOR BRITISH PRIME MINISTER TONY BLAIR AND THE 'NEW' LABOUR PARTY?

February 2002 :- After repeated attempts to stifle the story by the Labour Party, the British media finally lifted the lid on Prime Minister Tony Blair's unusual relationship with Lakshmi Mittal, an Indian multi-millionaire, capitalist tycoon and international industrialist.

The story emerged that in 2001 Prime Minister Blair had personally written to the Romanian government to smooth the way for the sale of a major Romanian steel works to Lakshmi Mittal. This letter of support came only weeks after Mittal had donated £125,000 to the Labour Party election fund.

The Downing Street response was that Mittal's steel company was a 'British firm' and that the purchase and refurbishment of the Romanian steel plant would be good for British trade. The truth was somewhat different; far from being a 'British firm', Mittal's LNM Group, only has a London office, his steel company is registered in the Dutch Antilles, less than 80 people are employed by the company in the UK, but hundreds work for it overseas, often in direct competition with British steel manufacturers. So much for Blair's declared support for British industry.

The Mittal episode has strong echoes of the previous New Labour scandal, the "Hinduja Affair—cash for passports", which tainted the 2001 election campaign and was the 'kiss of death' to the career of Blair's favourite, Peter Mandelson.

Within days of Downing street denials in the press, came the news that the British steel industry would be hit hard by proposed import control steel tariffs in the USA and that jobs in the British steel sector, especially in South Wales would be placed in serious risk. Corus, the British steel manufacturing company would certainly not benefit from the business activities of Lakshmi Mittal. (It was alleged in some quarters that Mittal was actively lobbying the US Government to introduce the tariffs against foreign steel imports into the USA).

- A point for all British National Socialists and British Nationalists to note, the ethnic minority newspaper, "Asian Xpress", listed the names and fortunes of the 275 richest Asian business people, with a combined wealth of £9.5 billion. Although many of those listed are not 'officially' British citizens, they often have London offices and business interests. Like the Hinduja brothers and Lakshmi Mittal, many pay more than a passing interest in British politics and Tony Blair has not been slow in developing a coterie of wealthy Asian supporters both in the UK and on the Indian sub-continent. These people will have a vested interest in opposing any electoral success by British Nationalist or National Socialist organisations.

The A-Z of BRITISH NATIONALISM

BROADSWORD Examines the Roots & Culture Behind British National Socialism

BOUDICCA (BOADICEA) - Her name meaning 'Victory'. She was the Queen of 'ICENI' in Norfolk until her husband 'PRASUTAGUS' died and the Romans claimed her Royal House. They plundered the House, bound then flogged Boudicca and raped her two young daughters.

After this she took revenge. By rousing her people and her neighbouring tribe the 'Trinovantes', She took the Romans by storm. First to fall was Colchester (Camulodunum) in 60 A.D, then London, then St. Albans (Verulamium) which at the time, 61 A.D, was a new city. However, her glory was short lived. As soon as the Romans had recovered from the surprise and rumours of Boudicca, her army was smashed and she committed suicide by poison. But still to this day Boudicca is a name of inspiration to so many people, as she epitomises the notion of a British warrior queen.

BORS - King of Gaul and father of 'Sir Bors'. King Bors aided King Arthur to victory against the rebel kings at the battle of Bedegraine. He was brother to Ban of Benwick and husband of Queen Evaine.

- Sir Bors - Knight of the Round Table. One of King Arthur's more pure knights, Sir Bors was one of only three to survive the Grail Quest and the only one to return to King Arthur's court. Bors was a strong fighter and a survivor, having come out of the Battle of Camlann alive. Although a 'chaste knight' he fathered a daughter, Elyan the White. He was finally killed on a Crusade in the Holy Land.

BORMANN, MARTIN. One of the most enigmatic figures of the Third Reich and something of a mystery to modern day National Socialists. A long serving National Socialist who joined the NSDAP in the early years, rose through the Party bureaucracy to become deputy to Rudolf Hess in 1933. Later Bormann was to become the Fuhrer's private secretary, in 1941 succeeding Rudolf Hess in many of his offices. Bormann founded the "Hilfskasse" a fund to help Party activists injured in street battles with the communists and socialists prior to 1933. A mastermind of political bureaucracy and organisation, he was disliked and mistrusted by many, but the Fuhrer called Bormann his "most loyal party comrade". Bormann remained at the centre of the NSDAP until the end, holding out in the Berlin bunker until after Adolf Hitler's death in April 1945. Bormann was believed killed during a breakout attempt through the Soviet encirclement on or about May 1st 1945. Many in the Allied camp believed that Martin Bormann survived and escaped to South America, he was subsequently sentenced to death 'in absentia' at the Nuremburg Trials. Over the years after 1945 there were many books written about Bormann, many sensational newspaper stories and reported sightings in Paraguay and Brazil. Finally in 1973 he was formally pronounced dead by a West German court after excavations of wartime burials in Berlin. One book which gives another possible explanation is "The Leader and the Damned" by Colin Forbes, which provides food for thought.

BRANWEN - Daughter of Llyr and sister to Bran the Blessed, half sister to Efnisien and Nisien. The story of Branwen is one of the key parts of the "Mabinogion". After seeing the carnage of battle, Branwen died of a broken heart. The seven surviving warriors, led by Pryderi and Taliesin, brought her body back to Wales and buried her at what is now Bedd Branwen on Anglesey

'Our Ancestors'

Who Are the British?

It is a sad reflection on the modern education system in the UK, that many of the younger generation do not know who their ancestors were, and more importantly who were the peoples and tribes who became the British.

In a new information series Broadsword seeks to provide some answers.

The British are a mixture of the tribes of Western and Northern Europe; the first Britons were the Celts, who were themselves an assortment of tribes and sub-groups. The Celts occupied all of Britain and Ireland, their least known kingdoms were in Scotland, dominated by the mysterious early Celtic people known as the Picts.

The Celts gave the British Isles the earliest foundations of our languages; today these survive in the Gaelic of Scotland and Ireland, Welsh and the almost forgotten languages of Cornish and Manx.

In the future issues of Broadsword, this series will look at the history, culture and legacy of the Celtic peoples of Britain.

It is due to the almost criminal neglect of current education policies in Britain that within a decade a whole generation of White British youngsters will be totally cut off from their heritage and cultural roots. In the pursuit of 'multi-cultural' education and 'political correctness' British children are taught more about the religions and customs of the Indian sub-continent and Africa than about the roots of the British.

In a world where television and Hollywood versions of history dominate popular entertainment it is essential that the reality of Britain's past is passed on to future generations in an untainted and undiluted form.

This new Broadsword series will go on to answer the questions;

Why did the Romans come to Britain?

Who were the original Anglo-Saxons?

Who were the Vikings?

Was there really a King Arthur?

What happened in 1066 that was so important?

DO YOU REMEMBER JOHN MAJOR?

Remember John Major?
Yes, the last Conservative
Prime Minister, the one before Tony Blair?

Well check this out.....
Mr Major has just been granted an extra £250,000 of Police protection by the Labour Government. The total bill for providing a 24 hour guard of the 'Old Bill' for the ex-Prime Minister now stands at £1.5 million.

This Police guard is provided by the Home Office and covers John Major, his family, and his three homes.

Yes, you heard right...three homes. The wealthy little man has a home in London, a holiday home on the Norfolk coast and his main residence in Huntingdon, Cambridgeshire.

Simple enough except:- the London home is a £3 million penthouse in Battersea, South London; the main house is a mansion in Great Stukeley in Huntingdon; and the holiday home is a £400,000 bungalow set in 10 acres of woodland on the Norfolk coast. The extra security means that Mr. Major can have an extra ten Police officers, based in the village of Weybourne, Norfolk.

So much for the promise to put more Police on the streets.

OUR READERS SAY

T.V. Mistranslations.

An interesting thing occurred recently on BBC T.V.
In a programme covering the emergence of 'Right-Wing' politics in Europe, the leader of the French Front Nationale was interviewed. It wasn't a 'hidden camera' situation, but one which all parties knew was being recorded. Charged that he was a racist, Le Pen constantly denied this, saying that he was simply against immigration, which was an altogether different issue. Pressed on the point by the interviewer however, he finally said in some exasperation (in French); "What should I do then to prove I am not racist? Marry a black woman?"

which on the accompanying subtitles translated as,
"What do you want me to do then? Marry a nigger?"

The BBC totally ignored my letter of complaint!

These sort of underhand tactics simply cannot be allowed to go unchecked. Also, an astute politician, knowing full well he was being filmed for a programme, which would go out on BBC TV would he be so daft as to actually say that?

This is just one of many examples of how morally decadent western politics has become.

We must continue as individuals to find these injustices and misinformation against our movement and speak up against it, in whatever guise they use, be it TV, Radio or the Media.

British Movement Women's Division

Below we reproduce a genuine and unsolicited e-mail sent to our BM On-Line service, the story speaks for itself in many ways and is a sad reflection as to how a young woman became a victim of multi-culturalism.

Once Bitten Twice Shy.....

In a nutshell, I was pretty PC (politically correct)...for my sins I fell in love with an Albanian "refugee" who let me see the other side, let me see what this country is doing to itself i.e. sacrificing its identity and its culture at the expense of these cheats and liars.... I had to sit by and shut up whilst he claimed benefits for his kid (by a 17 year old, so he had more of a 'right' to stay here), watched him work cash in hand, whilst claiming yet more benefits, I was brain washed into taking pity on his 'orphaned' cousin, take in his jobless brother, watch cousin after cousin and friend after friend arrive through my door. And when I complained I was abused both physically and mentally in my own home, in my own country, and when I asked them why they couldn't go home to build their country up with pride, I was accused of being a 'racist' and hit again. When I threatened them with the police they laughed.....and are laughing still.

And yes, I feel some guilt for feeling so bitter, but believe me, without a forum such as yourselves with which to vent my anger, I think I would burst open with anger at those individuals which abused me and the apathy of this country and most of its inhabitants.

Your thoughts would be very welcome....

BROADSWORD Replies:-

It has obviously taken this woman a great deal of courage to write in to BM On-Line and admit that she made a mistake. She has recognised that mistake and has been made to see first hand that multi-culturalism does not work.

They, the refugees, are laughing because they know the 'system', they are laughing because they know which buttons to press to get what they want.

This is the plight of one woman, if this is mirrored by how many more millions of White British perhaps our people will finally realise the depth of the situation.

This is not about feeling sorry for people who have nothing (the refugees) but it is about being manipulated, not just as individuals but as a nation.

British Movement does need greater participation from women and girls. The BMWD Organiser has requested that all female supporters of BM and readers of Broadsword contact her by letter - c/o Broadsword.

The BMWD Organiser also calls upon National Socialist men-folk to encourage their wives, girlfriends or daughters to take an active part in British National Socialism.

The BMWD anti-paedophile campaign which was launched through Broadsword has been widely supported, and this is only the beginning.

BROADSWORD Outlook.....

MOOT POINTS: - SEPTEMBER 11th AND AFTER.

I have noticed that the gulf between the manufactured reality presented in the mainstream media and the actual facts of the events on September 11th 2001 is widening at an alarming pace.

Here are a few facts uncovered;

There was a build-up of anti-Taliban media items before September 11th. (mass conditioning?)

There was a considerable number of big name companies trading stocks, shares and put options on the foreknowledge of the World Trade Centre event, especially in the airline sector.

It was widely known in India before September 11th that the United States was planning to attack the Taliban in October.

There is still only vague circumstantial evidence as to who is responsible for the attacks. We have to rely on the CIA, FBI etc telling us the truth. This is difficult, given the vested oil interests of Bush and Cheney, as well as the UK oil industry in that part of the world (Afghanistan). There is enough oil in the Caspian Sea region to last hundreds of years at our present rate of consumption.

Evidence suggests that the Bin Laden organisation, the CIA and Bush and Cheney have done much business together in the past. Also that American, British and Pakistani Intelligence agencies helped to create and train both Taliban and associated networks such as Al Qaida.

There is evidence to suggest that the hijackers may have been 'hijacked'. The planes could have been remote controlled, but this implies a high level 'inside-job'. Many pilots refuse to believe that the alleged hijackers were capable of flying the aircraft in the manner they were flown in.

Even the FBI says that 11 of the 19 hijackers did not plan on suicide.

Regardless of Who? Why? Or What?

September 11th 2001 has become a trigger event for bigger things to come. Many commentators consider that 'Big Brother' has taken one giant step closer, with the loss of civil liberties and increased 'Big Brother' technology, surveillance and police powers upon us on both sides of the Atlantic. Suddenly huge volumes of "anti-terror" laws are being drafted, ready for government approval.

All National Socialist comrades must stay vigilant and protect their freedom.

A FEW OBSERVATIONS ON THE DEATH OF THE QUEEN MOTHER.

British Movement is a National Socialist organisation, not a monarchist organisation and as such could not let the pomp and pageantry woven around this national event pass without comment.

The House of Windsor has always been keen to present itself as the repository of British tradition, culture and heritage wrapped in the flag of an ancient lineage. This is far from the truth and the current Royal Family, despite all its trappings is largely the invention of the recently deceased Queen Mother, who 're-packaged' the House of Windsor in the 1950's after the death of her husband the former king.

A few points of note: By 1999 the Queen Mother had run up a personal overdraft of £4 million at Coutts Bank. The debt was apparently paid off by her daughter Queen Elizabeth II. Up to her death, the Queen Mother was receiving £643,000 per year from the civil list, a sum paid for by ordinary British taxpayers. Despite the above debt, it seems that the Queen Mother's personal fortune was somewhere between £50 and £60 million, which includes £36 million of art and £16.5 million of jewellery.

Before her death the Queen Mother paid £19 million into trust funds for her great-grand children to avoid paying 40% inheritance tax. Most of the Queen Mother's personal estate will be left to the Queen and will also be exempt from inheritance tax. In fact very little tax either from death duties or other taxes will actually pass to the exchequer from the Queen Mother's estate. In fact for a person who took so much from the British taxpayer in life, the House of Windsor has taken great care to see that very little is given back on death.

RADICAL OPINION

"Mightier than the tread of marching armies is the power of an idea whose time has come" - Victor Hugo.

WHO IS HATING WHO ?

UNFAIR HATE CRIME LEGISLATION

RADICAL OPINION FROM THE USA.

Ever since Congress passed the Hate Crimes Statistics Act eleven years ago, mandating the collection of data about crimes motivated by an offenders bias against a victims race, religion, sexual orientation, or ethnicity, states have been enacting hate crimes legislation at a feverish pace. To hear the liberal media and so-called civil rights leaders talk about it you would believe that only White heterosexual males were the perpetrators of these crimes. Black rights activist Al Sharpton even said that white on black violence was a "national epidemic" Jesse Jackson claimed that blacks are not only "despised" but are actually "hunted for sport". Nothing could be further from the truth.

Even the FBI's own statistics show that the average black American is 1.6 times more likely to commit a racially motivated hate crime than the other way around. This ignores the fact that a white on black crime is five times more likely to be classed as a hate crime than black on white crime is. This is one of the main problems with hate crime legislation. There is no clear standard used to classifying a crime as one of hatred; the Police and media are notoriously biased when it comes to classing a crime as one of hate. When black on white crimes occur they get very little attention from the media and the majority of that is local coverage. Unless you get most of your news from the Internet, I will bet you never heard of Ronald Taylor, a black man who gunned down five whites killing three. A black neighbour quoted Taylor as saying "I'm gonna kill all white people". The media when reporting this story went out of their way to avoid mentioning racism.

In fact news anchor-man Larry Elder even went so far as to suggest that the police did not know if Taylor's 'alleged' hatred against whites was the "primary" or "sole" reason for the shootings. The police failed to refer to this case as a hate crime.

Another barely reported story took place in Kansas City in November 1999. An Ethiopian man shot and killed two co-workers, shot and wounded a third before killing himself. All three victims were white, the killer was black, he left a suicide note talking about "bloodsucker whites". Only eleven American newspapers bothered to carry the story, the case was never officially classed as a hate crime.

According to the US National Crime Victimization Survey for 1997, listing 1,700,000 inter-racial crimes; in 90% of cases the victim was white and the perpetrator black. Given these statistics - who hates who?

R.M. Fort Worth. Texas.

* Broadsword says:- Readers take careful note of the above story. The Labour Government and Race Relations lobby in the UK are very keen to import the idea of 'Hate Crimes' into the British legal system. There are already draconian Race Relations laws on British statute books and recently a fresh impetus to 'outlaw racism' has come from the European Union. As in the USA, the bulk of this enforcement is aimed at the White population to force through racial integration and multi-culturalism. Without the cudgel of Race Relations Acts and Public Order Acts, the British people will never accept a multi-racial Britain. On top of which the Board of Deputies of British Jews are pressuring the Home Office to tighten laws on 'hate crimes' to include denial of the 'Holocaust' - an offence of "public denial or trivialisation of the crimes dealt with by the international military tribunal established in 1945." This would bring Britain in line with Europe and put massive pressure on silencing any kind of expression of radical Nationalist or National Socialist expression - Radical Opinions would be illegal.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Broadsword,

Re:- The lies of September 11th.

Who could ever possibly benefit from the vicious and brutal attacks of September 11th?

Let's see:

1. International bankers will be making hundreds of billions in new loans.
2. The arms dealers are going to have a field day.
3. Ariel Sharon and friends are jumping for joy because any nation that does not blindly support Israel could be targeted by America.
4. The CIA, FBI, NSA and Delta Force are all going to have significantly increased budgets and authority.
5. The mega corporations are going to gain further access to the huge oil and gas reserves of the Caspian Sea.

Behind the scenes the political events are moving at warp speed.

At the same time, there is objective and meaningful information concerning this series of events that most British and Americans are not aware of because the predominant media are controlled by the plutocracy.

Unless we, as conscious people, awaken to the matrix of lies, we will see further transfers of power to the so-called "elite" and a loss of our rights.

Naxos.

Dear Editor,

Thank you so much for sending me "Broadsword" Issue 21. It was a real pleasure reading it. When I was a schoolboy, decorating my exercise-book and desk with swastikas, my teacher said that National Socialism was dead. But he was absolutely wrong!

National Socialism is spreading throughout the white world. Only in Germany it is brutally oppressed. The rulers talk a lot of human rights, but human rights are denied to National Socialists.

Wolfgang—Germany.

Dear Broadsword,

Over here, we continue to be swamped with illegal immigrants. Just the other day, 13 were found in a container at Wexford, and 8 were dead! Such a fuss is being made about them, the 5 survivors are 'guaranteed Irish citizenship' by the government, and no expense is being spared to help them. The message is going out loud and clear all over the world that Ireland is the place to go. Now they say that in 5 years time, 1 in 8 people here will be an immigrant!

A message from Dublin.

....AND FROM OUR READERS ON-LINE....

..I find the doctrines of your party stimulating and most of all hopeful...It is reassuring to know that there really are people out there like me who can see the insidious damage being done to our country by multiculturalists and the menacing sinister Islamic Parliament and British Council of Muslims to mention just one. May Providence grant us leadership to extricate ourselves from this quagmire of decadent politics, ridden by greed and self interest. Desperate situations usually call for desperate remedies, but above all powerful leadership with passion and integrity.

(Editors note) - BM aspires to this.

... National Socialist greetings...the more I think about it only National Socialism can restore Law and Order, not just to the bloodstained streets of Ulster, but to all of Britain in a new government of the British people. This message will seed and grow in the fertile soil of the Britain of the old decadent order. As 'globalisation' in all its hideous forms pollutes everything that it touches, our folk will eventually look for an alternative and they won't care too much if that alternative is decked out in a pin-striped suit or wearing a Sunwheel badge.

All they will demand is solutions to their problems. This will be a time once again when National Socialism, essentially the creed of the future, will come into its own.

The next 10 to 20 years as I see it will herald a great awakening when our people will regain their pride and begin to "think with their blood" or the final days of a once great British civilisation.

R.McC. Ulster.

END NOTES

IT COMES AS NO SURPRISE.

According to informed sources, two of the three 'British Asians' from Tipton in the west Midlands, currently being held by US forces on Cuba for their involvement with the Taliban or Al Qaida, just happen to be related to two local Labour Party councillors on Tipton

Politically Correct Terminology

When they say Tolerance they really mean: put up with it and don't resist the negative impact of their anti-white policies. Accept mass immigration. Don't resist the promotion of deviant lifestyles. Learn to live with the shameful economic exploitation via monopoly capitalism.

Tolerance means; no resistance....white-man.

When they say Diversity they really mean: Multi-racialism.

When they say Multiculturalism it has little to do with culture. In practice, it also means the development of Multi-racialism.

When they talk about Globalism, they really mean the transfer of funds from white taxpayers to the rest of the planet.

If you are considered politically correct material and you go out and commit atrocities, expropriate land, murder and imprison the rightful owners, you will have 'soft' terms applied to describe you:

Rebels, Insurgents, Revolutionaries. When describing an overall situation, they will put it down to Ethnic Strife.

If they don't like you very much they might say, Militants, Radicals, Guerrillas, Fundamentalists, Religious Fanatics.

If they really like you they will always call you Freedom Fighters. Lately the PC media have used the term Settlers to describe the violent activities of a minority of colonialist Israelis.

But, if you are identified with the Politically Incorrect, then you are automatically described as a Terrorist, Racist, Extremist, White Supremacist, or you are a Nazi, a Neo-Nazi, a Neo-Fascist.

Your office or headquarters or meeting will often be referred to as a Nest or a Nest of Hate.

This is how the politically correct in the media shape ordinary people's understanding of events and shape opinions through manipulation of language and imagery.
